To attempt walking down the landing yesterday was a tempting of Providence.

The Heary Frank, Beile of Texas and Annie P. Silver arrived at New Orisans yesterday.

The Big Sindy river is reported running out very strong, but not sufficiently to break up the ice in the Ohio.

Beveral of the coal boats, moored at the foot of Beale street, have been trapped by the rapid deliline of the river and the floating ice.

The lee has so covered the marks on the government gauge at the river, that we are unable to state the exact decrease of water at this point yesterday.

The river had not as much ice in it yesterday, and in two or three days, should this warm weather continue, steamers will be enabled to resums their regular trips.
